ART GALLERY OF WINDSOR

This art tour is revealing history through a...

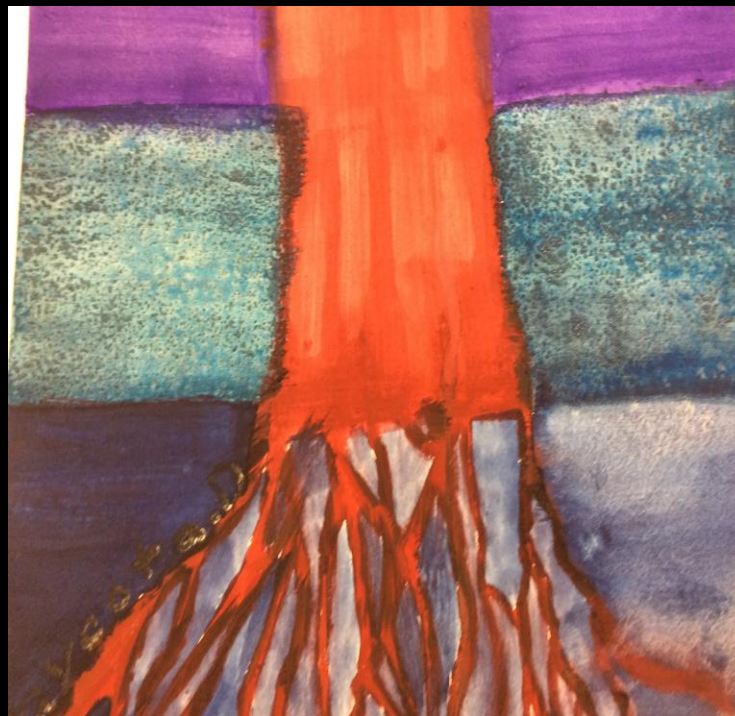

This learning experience impacted me because it opened my eyes to Canada's dark past which is rarely talked about and that it still happens to this day. It also was displayed in my "Rings on a Tree" artwork because it allowed me to take a better look at what makes me, me.

INDIGENOUS ARTS PROJECT

I have learned that art tells a story and understanding that has really helped me put more effort into my work. I started to think how my artwork can be traced back to me even in minor ways.

Through the Indigenous Art Project, Roots, I learned to reach more into my family roots to discover interesting knowledge about my family history. To become more invested in my roots.

MUSICFEST WINDSOR, 2020
