

Presenter Name: Tim Borlase and Lynne Surette

Proposal Title:

Recruiting Acadians in the War of 1812-Using the arts to interpret the historical record

Description:

This workshop will show interactively a website from the Capitol School of Performing Arts which highlights how music , costume design and theatre were used to bring little known research to life about the Acadian involvement in the War of 1812 just two generations after their deportation in various locales in eastern New Brunswick.