

PETER HERRNDORF, O.C.
President & CEO of the National Arts Centre

Peter Herrndorf has worked as a television Current Affairs Producer and later as Vice President and General Manager of English radio and television networks at the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, was Publisher of Toronto Life magazine, and Chairman and CEO of TVOntario.

Peter Herrndorf is the former chairman of the international Performing Arts Center Consortium (PACC) and serves on the the Board of Directors of Luminato, Toronto's Festival of Arts and Creativity. He was the Chair of the selection panel for the 2011 Lieutenant Governor of Alberta Distinguished Artists Awards. He is a Member of the Honourary Leaders Council of the PuSh International Performing Arts Festival. He is a former member of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, former member of the Steering Committee for the Canadian Arts Summit and the past Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Broadcasting Museum Foundation. He was the Founding President of the Governor General's Performing Arts Awards Foundation; a former member of the Governing Council of the University of Toronto and the Board of the University of Ottawa; a former member of the University of Toronto Presidential Search Committee; past Chairman of the Stratford Festival; past Chairman of the Canadian Museum of Civilization; and past Chairman of the Canadian Stage Company. He is an Honorary Fellow of the Ontario College of Art and Design, was a Senior Visiting Fellow at Massey College, and served as a Distinguished Visitor in Journalism at the University of Western Ontario.

Peter Herrndorf is an Officer of the Order of Canada and a Member of the Order of Ontario. He holds a B.A. in Political Science and English from the University of Manitoba, a law degree from Dalhousie University, and an MBA from Harvard University.