

National Conference 2015

CREATIVE ENGAGEMENT:

A Call to Action for Arts & Learning in Canada

Wednesday, March 25, 2015

The Royal Conservatory's Koerner Hall. 273 Bloor St. W, Toronto

Website: www.eduarts.ca/events/national-conference-2015

Email: info@eduarts.ca

Early-bird Registration deadline: February 13, 2015

Deadline to Submit Poster Presentations: February

The CNAL/RCAA
National Conference
2015 is generously sponsored by The Canadian Commission
for UNESCO

CNAL/RCAA NATIONAL CONFERENCE 2015 will take place on March 25, 2015 at The Royal Conservatory's magnificent Koerner Hall. This inspiring event is hosted by the UNESCO Chair in Arts and Learning and The Royal Conservatory of Music. It also will celebrate the 20th anniversary of Learning Through the Arts (LTTA).

The National Conference will be the year's central opportunity to gather all those that support arts and learning to debate key issues, learn about and share research, and discover inspiring new ways that the benefits of the arts are being applied across many sectors of society. The day-long program will delve into the critical theme of engagement, and will feature dynamic speakers and presenters from the arts, business, academic and media worlds, as well as incredible live performances, and a Gala Tribute dinner that will recognize the outstanding contribution of Peter Herrndorf O.C., President and CEO of the National Arts Centre for his exceptional work to support the arts and arts education .

IMPORTANT DATES

Early-bird Registration deadline: February 13, 2015

Deadline to Submit Poster Presentations: February 13, 2015

REGISTRATION

Register online at www.eduarts.ca/events/national-conference-2015

Or email info@eduarts.ca

Provisional Program: www.eduarts.ca/events/national-conference-2015/

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

Opening Keynote: Mary Walsh, C.M.

MC: Ben Heppner, C.C.

Panel: "How are you addressing the urgent need for engagement?"

Face-to-Face networking opportunities with leaders in the field

"The Urgent Need for Creativity" - celebrated business and arts leaders discuss

Extraordinary artistic performances

Unveiling of a vital research project looking at the evaluation of arts and learning

Practical tools, exceptional research and resources

Gala Tribute Dinner honouring a distinguished leader in the field